By signing this contract, I am guaranteeing that:

1. I have visited the course website at <https://www.cs.cmu.edu/~112>
2. I have carefully read and fully understand the entire course syllabus on the course website.
[Note: of course, if you have any questions about course policies, you can and should ask them (in recitation, at TA or faculty office hours, or on piazza) before signing this document!]
3. In particular, while I have read the entire syllabus carefully,...
 - a. I understand that all homework is entirely solo, meaning that I must not collaborate with anyone in any way.
 - b. I understand that no phones or electronic devices are allowed in lecture, recitation, or any other faculty-led or TA-led course event.
 - c. I further understand that using electronic devices, no matter how briefly or for whatever purpose, in a Hw Booster Session is a major violation.
 - d. I understand the entire section in the syllabus on Academic Integrity.
 - e. I also understand the sections on course Resources and on Well-Being and Happiness.
[Note: we are genuinely dedicated to supporting you, helping you thrive in this course and more broadly at CMU while learning important skills that should help advance your academic and professional careers.]
